Essay Prompt: Compose a 200-500 personal statement about you and your creative work. Describe your artwork, career goals, what drives you to create, and/or anything special about you and your work that you would like to share with the review committee. The essay will be evaluated on these points. Does the writing demonstrate a commitment and passion for the creative process? Is the writing creative? Does the writing convey the author's point of view? Does the author use appropriate grammar, punctuation, and spelling?
